

Writing

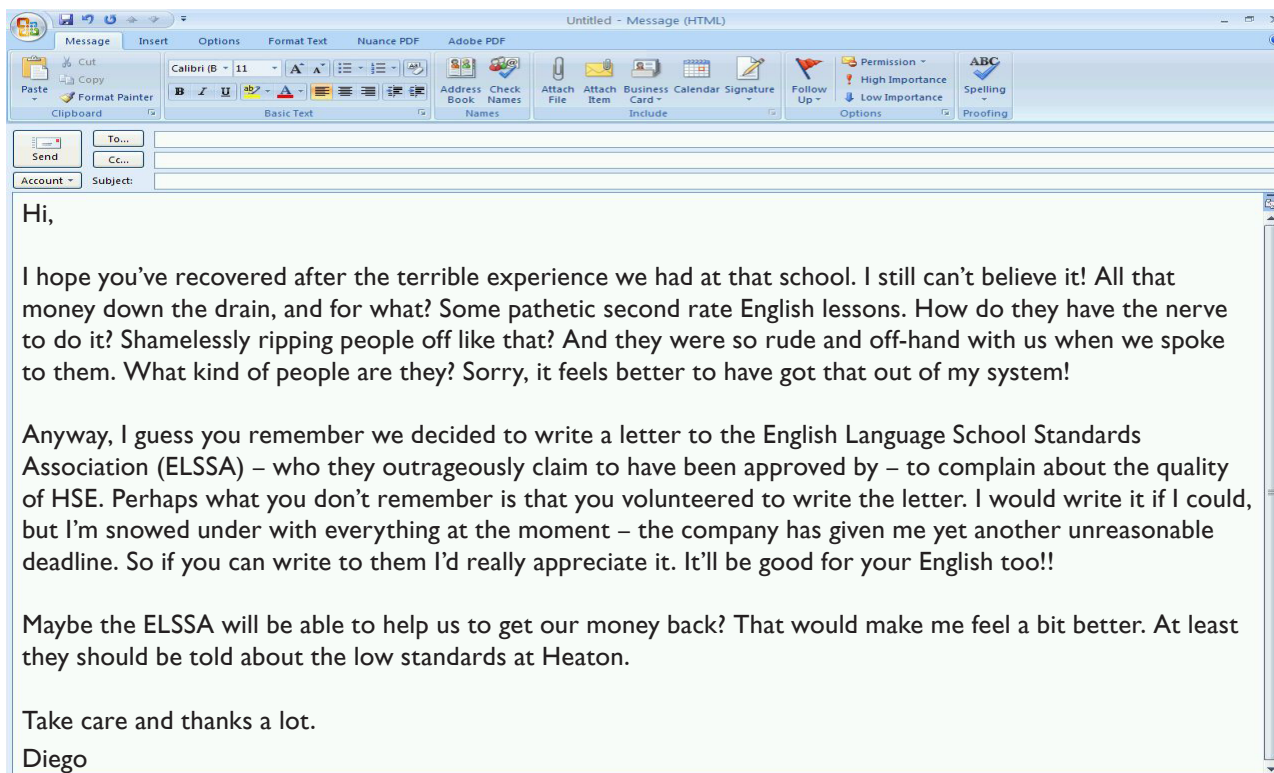

Time: 60 minutes

- Write all your answers on the separate answer sheet
- You must not speak to the other candidates

Task One: Compulsory Task (30 minutes)

- You must answer this question.

Your friend has sent you this email. Make use of the information in the advertisement and your notes to write a letter to the English Language School Standards Association (ELSSA).

unmotivated.
native? Had they taught before?
Did they know how to?

The lessons were terrible. Did they plan?

I'd be surprised
if anyone ever passed.

Thirty years of teaching excellence

- Learn English at an established language school in England's beautiful South-West.
- Experienced and well-qualified native teachers.
- The latest teaching methods.
- A level testing system and needs analysis that finds a course that suits you
- A wide range of English courses (General English, English for Examinations, English for Business and more) for all age groups.
- Friendly homestay accommodation.
- A lively, interesting English language social programme.
- High exam pass rate.
- A state of the art computer and self-access centre to allow you to take control of your learning.

Excellence – that's debatable!

All abilities and ages in the same class

Not true

That's a joke!

ELSSA approved

Maybe 10 years ago

Task Two: Extended Writing (30 minutes)

- Choose only ONE of the following questions – 1, 2 OR 3. Write ca. 200 words.
- You can include addresses, dates etc. if you want to, but they will not be marked.
- DO NOT answer more than one question.

1.

A television company is looking for people who would be willing to spend 6 months on a desert island with 13 others. Participants will have to survive without modern conveniences and their experiences will be broadcast at a future date.

Write a letter persuading the programme makers that you should take part and what you hope to learn from the experience.

2.

The mayor of your town has introduced a congestion charge for driving into the town centre. Write an article about the scheme and the effects it has had.

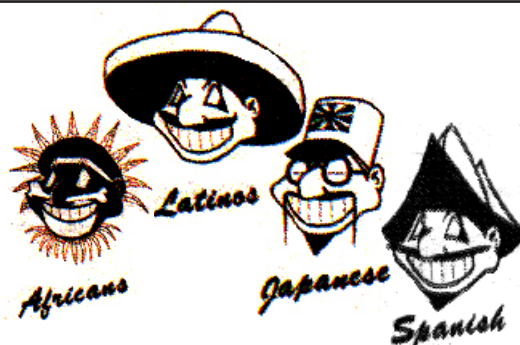

Write an article.

3.

'Stereotypes help us understand the world.'

To what extent do you agree with this statement?

Write an essay.